

Beegu

Beegu was not supposed to be on Earth. She was lost.

No one understood what she was saying. No one listened. She walked and she walked and she walked. From far away, she thought she heard her mum calling. But it was a telephone!

Beegu felt very lonely, so she decided to find some friends. She found a playground full of children. From far away, she thought she heard her mum calling. But it was a school bell!

Then she wandered some more. She found a zoo full of wild animals. From far away she thought she heard her mum calling. But it was a lion roaring!

Finally, Beegu trudged up a steep hill. From far away, she thought she heard her mum calling. She looked up at the sky full of stars. It was her mum!