

The background of the page is a collage of various flags, including the Union Jack, the flag of the Channel Islands, the flag of Jersey, and the flag of the Isle of Man. The flags are set against a blue sky.

In Geography, children can name and locate counties, cities, rivers, mountains and hills of the United Kingdom.

Children can observe the human and physical features of Longsight.

Children can recognise patterns and contours on maps of the UK and Longsight.

In PHSE, children can recognise personal qualities and individuality.

Children can set goals for themselves.

Children can manage set-backs, learn from mistakes and reframe unhelpful thinking.

In Art, Children can use the work of British artists to inspire their own work. Children can use a sketchbook and collect images.

In English, children can read, plan and write a meeting tale.

Children can use a varied and rich vocabulary.

Children can extend the range of sentences with more than one clause by using a wider range of subordinate clauses, varying the clause structure.

Children can use varying determiners and expanded noun phrases.

Children can use and punctuate direct speech.

In Science, children can describe the simple functions of the basic parts of the digestive system in humans.

Children can identify the different types of teeth in humans and their simple functions.

Children can construct and interpret a variety of food chains, identifying producers, predators and prey.

Autumn 1 2021
Year Four
The United Kingdom